The Ozark Red Granite Company has shipped about three hundred cars of granite this year.

Eli Depew bought the Spitzmiller farm, east of town, at sheriff sale Tuesday for $1275.

A letter from Maj. Murphy of St. Louis, in reference to the battle of Pilot Knob, will be printed next week.

S. W. Andrews and a party of conductors from St. Louis will go to Reynolds county on a hunting trip next week.

The ladies of the Episcopal Church will give their annual bazaar in December. Exact date will be announced later.

Mr. Perkins, the photographer, has some very pretty Arcadia Valley views on souvenir postal cards. Call and see them.

A new time card, it is announced, will be issued in a few weeks. The Hot Springs train will probably be put on the road again.

The famous Carrie Nation, of hatchet fame, passed through here on one of the south-bound trains one day last week, on her way to Paragould, Arkansas.

The regular services of the M. E. Church, South, will be held by the pastor next Sunday morning at Fort Hill and at the brick chapel at night. All are cordially invited.

Buck Semar, the saloon man at Franklany, in St. Francois county, who was shot by burglars a couple of weeks ago, died Wednesday of last week as the result of his wounds.

Montgomery Patton, aged 85 years, died at the home of his son, Chas. Patton, in this city, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The remains will be taken to West Plains tomorrow (Thursday) for interment.

Assistant Attorney General Gentry arrived here from Jefferson City Tuesday morning for the purpose, it is presumed, of assisting the grand jury in its endeavor to ascertain who composed the Spaulth mob.

The B. Y. P. U. will give a Hal-loween social in the basement of the Baptist church next Tuesday night. A short programme will be rendered and refreshments served. Come and have a good time. Admission, 10 cents.

At a meeting of the school board last Friday evening it was determined not to employ another teacher at the present time. An attempt will be made to relieve the crowded primary room by making promotions to the other rooms.

Following are the Grand Jurors summoned by the Sheriff, who are serving this week: Jasper Anderson, H. M. Keeling, Wm. Blue, S. E. Buford, Jas. A. Smith, Larry Keenan, Henry Adolph, Jos. Seilinger, Wm. Lewis, Henry Ruble, Ben Crocker and Chas. Bollinger.

Mr. H. A. Gibbs, of St. Louis, last week purchased outright the Enterprise plant, and will take charge of the paper next week. He says he will be his own boss and conduct the paper according to his notion of the fitness of things. It will continue Republican in politics.

County court met last Thursday and awarded the contract for building another span to the bridge across Knob creek to O. W. Child of St. Louis—his bid being $640. There were several other bids, ranging as high as $680. The contract for the concrete work was let to Robert G. Farmer.

Mrs. Woodside asks the REGISTER to announce that on and after October 27th she will have a complete line of trimmed hats on hand and for sale at the store of W. T. Barnhouse in Graniteville. Ladies in that vicinity who wish anything in the millinery line are cordially invited to call.

Only a few more days for reduced rates at the Queen City Business College. This old reliable school has placed more young persons in the business houses of Springfield than all other schools combined. It pays to attend a business college that has a good reputation at home.

Mrs. Lulu Gillam Woodside desires to let the ladies know that she has some rare bargains in millinery, infants' coats and caps, ready-made dress skirts, notions, etc., in her stock here in Ironton. The goods were bought low and will be sold low. Every lady in the county who wishes anything in the lines named is urged to call.

Frank Mahara's Big Minstrel Carnival, numbering in all thirty colored artists and a big concert, will be here Saturday, October 28. Frank Mahara this season has captured nearly all the old time favorites in the colored race for his big show. Foremost among them is Skinner Harris, who is professionally known as the "Black Ezra Kendall," and he is without doubt the greatest colored performer of the age. Mahara's big concert band will give a street parade at noon and a concert at 7:30 p. m. Prices, 25c, 35c and 50c.

What is more refreshing than a real bright gingerly minstrel performance with its jolly comedians, clever dancers and superb vocalists, grand augmented orchestra, all keeping time with the happy jingle of the bones and tamborines and a superbly handsome scenic mounting and beautiful costumes to set the burnt cork off with? All of the latest innovations that money could secure have been put together by Mr. Mahara and will be seen at the Academy of Music Saturday, October 28th. Prices, 25c, 35c and 50c. Parade at noon and band concert at 7:30 p. m.

O. C. Lucy is showing Mr. A. B. Pierce, an official of the Missouri Pacific railroad over the northern and eastern part of our county this week. It is claimed that Mr. Pierce is viewing a proposed branch of the Iron Mountain to the Dobbins' mine and the heavy timber belt in the north and western part of the county. There has long been talk of a branch being built from Hogan or Sabula extending into the section above mentioned in this county, but this is the first time as far as we know that an official of the road has ever looked over the proposed line.—Reynolds County Outlook.

The statute requires that when a defendant gives notice of an intention to apply for a change of venue, that the facts set forth in the notice must be sworn to by two credible, disinterested citizens. When the application for a change of venue in the Spaulth case was filed a week or so ago there was no such affidavit accompanying the notice. Last Saturday, however, Adrian Steel, one of the attorneys for the defense, called for the papers, and in an hour or two returned them with the proper affidavit attached. Rev. George Steel, pastor of the Ironton Baptist Church, and Frank Mullin, Vice-President of the South Hungary Land and Colonization Company, swear that the Spaulths can not have a fair and impartial trial in Iron county, because the inhabitants of said Iron county are biased and prejudiced against them. And so the case rests until the judge decides.

William J. Bryan sailed from San Francisco September 27th. Mr. Bryan will make a voyage around the world. In the course of his journey he will visit Hawaii, China, the Philippine Islands, India, Australia, New Zealand, Egypt, Palestine, Greece, Turkey, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Germany, France, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Russia, Holland and the British Isles. In each of these countries Mr. Bryan will write for his paper, The Commoner, one or more letters describing his observations. It is needless to say that Mr. Bryan's letters will be interesting to men and women, regardless of political prejudice. Those desiring to avail themselves of the opportunity to read these letters should lose no time in subscribing for The Commoner. Attention is invited to an announcement, relating to these letters, printed in another column of this issue. We are able to offer special inducements to any one who desires to read Mr. Bryan's articles.

Recent experiments by the Missouri Agricultural College show that if the farmers of the State will give proper attention to the selection of seed corn this fall, the value of next year's yield of corn in Missouri will be increased $9,000,000. The principal thing these experiments show, which farmers have heretofore overlooked, is that it is just as important to select the stalk from which a seed ear comes as it is to select the ear itself, and hence, the mistake of thinking that the best seed corn can be selected from the crib where there are no means of telling on what kind of stalk an ear was produced. Of course, the best time to select seed, in accordance with these suggestions, is in the fall while the corn is being husked in the field. The ears should be sound, well matured, with deep straight kernels, loosely set; the stalk, of medium height, strong and vigorous. Extremely tall stalks usually produce long loose ears that are not desirable. After the seed is collected, it should be stored in a dry, airy place to prevent it from sprouting or losing vitality.

William and Arthur Spaulth, who have been in the St. Louis jail since the attempt was made to mob them here on the night of July 7th, were brought to Ironton by Sheriff Marshall and County Clerk O'Neal on the evening train Saturday. When the case against them and their mother, Mrs. Mary E. Spaulth, was called in the circuit court Monday afternoon, the application for a change of venue from this county was taken up. The court fixed Thursday as the day on which evidence would be heard in reference to the application. Ten witnesses will be heard on each side. The following witnesses have been subpoenaed by the State: Henry Wray, Sol. Jones, Chas. Bollinger, James H. Sutton, J. B. Holloman, Wm. J. Schab, Wm. Blue, R. J. Hill, Fiem Kidd and Jasper Anderson. The witnesses for the defense are: John Schwab, Frank Mullin, Mose Thomas, J. C. Paulus, Monroe Black, John R. Adams, Newt Huff, N. S. Vickery, John Crowley and Fred. Amidon. These witnesses will testify only in reference to the change of venue.

Judge Williams convened circuit court Monday morning about ten o'clock. The charge was given to the grand jury and S. E. Buford was named as foreman. In the afternoon work was begun on the docket. Wm. Persons, charged with attempt to rape, was found guilty of a common assault and his punishment fixed at six months in jail. The case against the Spaulths was called and continued until Thursday, when the evidence in reference to the change of venue will be heard. Tuesday morning John and Amalek Brooks, charged with killing John Clemonds at Graniteville, were arraigned and the case continued until Thursday. A jury was empaneled to try Henry Trammel, on the charge of assault with intent to kill, committed on Harry Holland a couple of weeks ago. A verdict of guilty was returned and punishment fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Willie Lee, the negro soldier who entered the residence of Al. Young in Arcadia last May, pleaded guilty and by agreement was given a sentence of three years in the penitentiary. A. P. Vance, who is charged with embezzlement, swore that he could not get a fair trial under Judge Williams. This case was set for November 20th, and some other judge will be called to try it. Tuesday evening the case of C. B. Immer vs. E. B. Immer, executor, endeavoring to set aside a settlement made in the probate court, was taken up. The trial of this case will probably occupy most of the court's time today.

Glad that no rain drops fell while their marriage ceremony was performed Tuesday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Raney spent Wednesday making preparations for their wedding journey to California. They are guests at the Moser Hotel. When they return they will live in Monroe City, which has been Mr. Raney's home for years. Mrs. Raney was previously to her marriage Mrs. Virginia C. James of Ironton, Mo., the widow of Rev. Thomas S. James, rector of the Episcopal Church. Because of the difference in years between Mr. and Mrs. Raney considerable attention has been given to the marriage. "I am sure that I have a good wife," said Mr. Raney to a Post-Dispatch woman reporter Wednesday morning. "The subject of age has never bothered me. The reason that I didn't marry before was probably because I was spoiled. I began being best man at weddings when I was fourteen, and have kept it up ever since. My mother liked me to take the part of a man when I was that age and dressed accordingly. I was full grown and did my part so well that it became almost a habit. It would be interesting to hear the story of the men for whom I have been best men—old men, some of them widowers, young men and men of different ages. Some of the men were millionaires, some were wooden shoes. When my mother died I began to understand that I was alone. Now I have a wife and can look back at my past." Mrs. Raney showed her pretty wedding dress of gray satin, the bodice of which was decorated with the white without which any bridal costume is said to be incomplete. Cream point lace, an heirloom, was used in the yoke and sleeves. Black Chantilly lace designs were set in the skirt. Her jewels were a diamond brooch, pearls, diamond and opal rings and a band bracelet of gold. Her hat was of velvet with plumes. Her going away gown is of green broadcloth with velvet trimming. "The wedding ceremony was beautiful," she said in reference to the marriage service of the Roman Catholic Church, of which she became a member Monday. "Much has been said about the difference in our ages. I know what my age is—57—but I do not know Mr. Raney's age. I was brought up to consider it bad manners to ask anyone's age. I know that he graduated 25 years ago; that is enough for me." Rev. Mr. Sullivan, who was Mr. Raney's instructor at St. Pauls, Kan., and the former was a scholastic and the latter a collegian, performed the marriage ceremony. Rev. Father Lyons, who has recently been changed from Monroe City to St. Louis, was to have assisted Father Sullivan, but was prevented from so doing by business. Mr. and Mrs. Raney did not have attendants of their choosing because it was their plan to have their marriage as quiet as possible. Father Sullivan supplied the witnesses, one of whom was Mr. Charles Cavanaugh. Mr. Raney is a Kentuckian by birth but was brought to Missouri when a child. He will buy out the drug business which he has conducted when he returns to Monroe City. His departure from his home was dramatic. For years the young men and women have considered him as their property, and though they rebelled when they first heard of his marriage, they accompanied him to the train in a body and wished him Godspeed. He did not select his attendants from Monroe City because he felt that to be fair he would have to choose all his friends. Mrs. Raney is a tall, dark-eyed woman, Mr. Raney has blue eyes, light hair and is of athletic build. Both are interesting conversationalists.—Post-Dispatch.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameless and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled.
